Thank you for consulting our how-to! Certain nuances of our software dictate that we safeguard our enrollment numbers by outlining a few options to proceed with purchasing multiple spots in an event at our studio.

If not properly enrolled, our events run the risk of being overbooked.

Option 1

Purchase two spots under your own account. Call or email the front desk to ensure the second spot is assigned to the other(s) person attending the event. If two spots are purchased without the other(s) being assigned, only one spot will be reserved.

Option 2

Purchase one spot under your own account. Sign in to the other account(s) or create an account for the other attendee and purchase under the other account separately. This will ensure that both names are properly registered and accounted for in our roster. No need to contact us!

Option 3

If all else fails, call or email the front desk, and we'll take care of it for you!
